Meet Anna and Luis
RDM Professionals within NFDI

Anna

"When I give a training workshop on RDM, I need (information on) materials, (didactic) learning resources, training methods and tested formats I can reuse."

"When I get questions about legal aspects, I wish I would feel more comfortable about the request and know experts where I could reach out."

- Didactics and methods how to provide RDM trainings

- Reuse of existing training materials

- Exploring options for certification

Prospectively in the upcoming phases:

- Contributing to classification and formalization efforts

- Monitoring RDM trends

- Testing a third training format

- Establishing a certification process for the NFDI

- Expanding our service

Questions You Might Be Asking

Frequently asked questions

RDMT4 nfdi

Is the RDMT4NFDI certificate course related to the one provided by TH Cologne, ZB MED and fdm.nrw?

Why does it need a network within RDM on top?

Are there any certified modules available, and what do they cost?

Yes, one of our formats is building upon this certificate course. This format will be included and tested in the next phase of the project (starting prospectively spring 2026).

We are aware that there are existing networks. We are currently exploring how our service could benefit the existing network.

In the first phase, we are exploring options for certification. There are no certified modules yet. Testing formats in the first phase are free of charge for the cooperating consortia.

Which format does RDMT4NFDI want to offer in this year?

A) Summer School
B) Autumn School
C) Winter School
